renowed gems of Zanzibar

Nestled in the heart of the picturesque Michamvi region of Zanzibar, this second-row hotel offers a prime opportunity for both hospitality enthusiasts and astute investors.

Boasting a coveted location, the property is just a leisurely 2-minute stroll from the pristine shores of Michamvi Beach, a renowned gem in one of Zanzibar's most sought-after tourist destinations.

Beyond its enviable location, the property features an inviting on-site restaurant and bar, offering a delightful culinary experience for guests and potential patrons. The ambiance and amenities make it an ideal choice for those looking to capitalize on Zanzibar's thriving tourism industry.

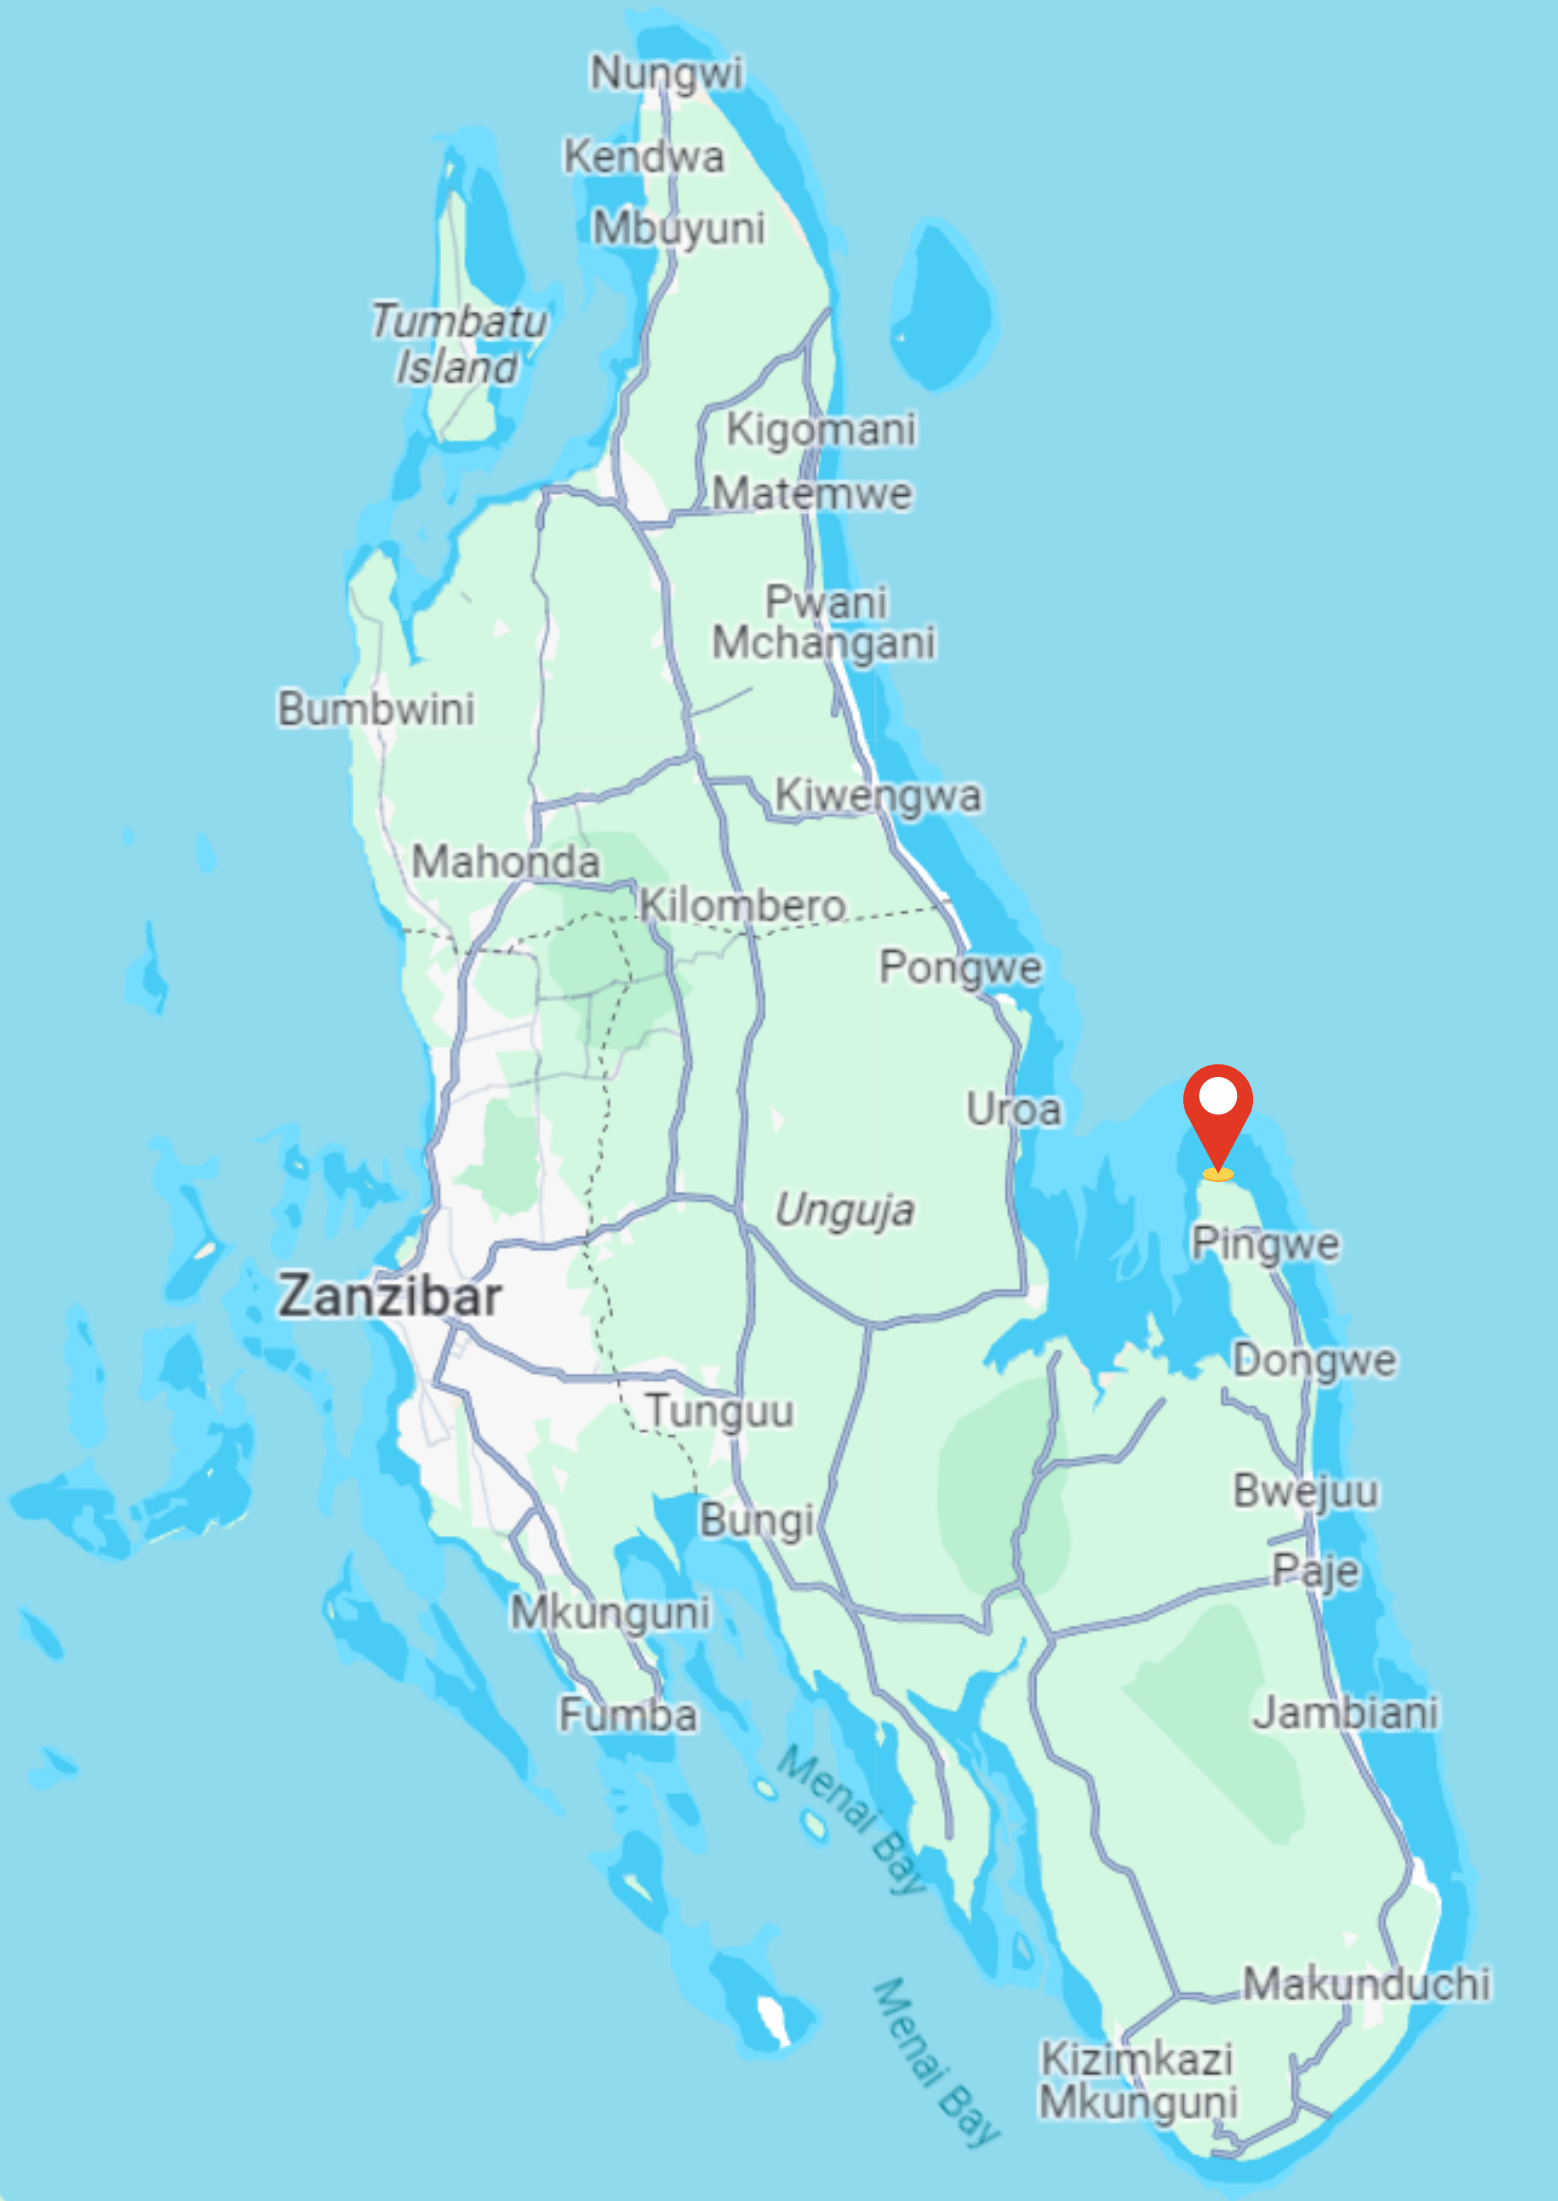

Notably, this hotel is under the ownership of a foreign investor, ensuring a smooth transaction with all the requisite title and ownership documentation in place.

The fully walled compound adds an element of privacy and security to the premises, creating a secluded haven for guests.

Enjoy the convenience of electricity, providing a seamless and comfortable experience for both short-term visitors and long-term residents.

Accessible via a well-paved road, the property offers ease of transportation and connection to the surrounding areas, enhancing its appeal.

Additionally, a private parking lot further contributes to the convenience and practicality of the establishment, catering to the needs of guests arriving by private vehicles.
